WOMEN IN AUTOMOTIVE

No matter how big or small our business, whatever our position, we have one thing in common – the need for smart money. The upcoming VACC Women in Automotive function will address this need.

VACC and the Automotive Centre of Excellence (ACE) are pleased to have two very knowledgeable, highly experienced presenters on the evening to talk about managing finances from both a business and personal perspective. This will include business planning, cash flow management and investment selection.

Keynote Speakers

Sue Dahn is the Partner-in-Charge of the Investment Advisory practice of Pitcher Partners Melbourne. Sue has in excess of 25 years experience in the provision of financial advice, self managed superannuation funds, asset allocation, portfolio construction and investment selection. Sue has earned an industry-wide reputation, awarded Personal Investor Magazine's Australia's Top 50 Financial Advisors in 2001, 2002 and 2003.

Vicki Macdermid is in charge of the Superannuation division of Pitcher Partners Melbourne. She has extensive experience providing commercial business advice and support to individuals behind the business. Vicki works closely with a broad client base extending from family business groups and owner/operators and is extensively involved in tax planning and superannuation.
